DO YOUR BRAIN

a favor.

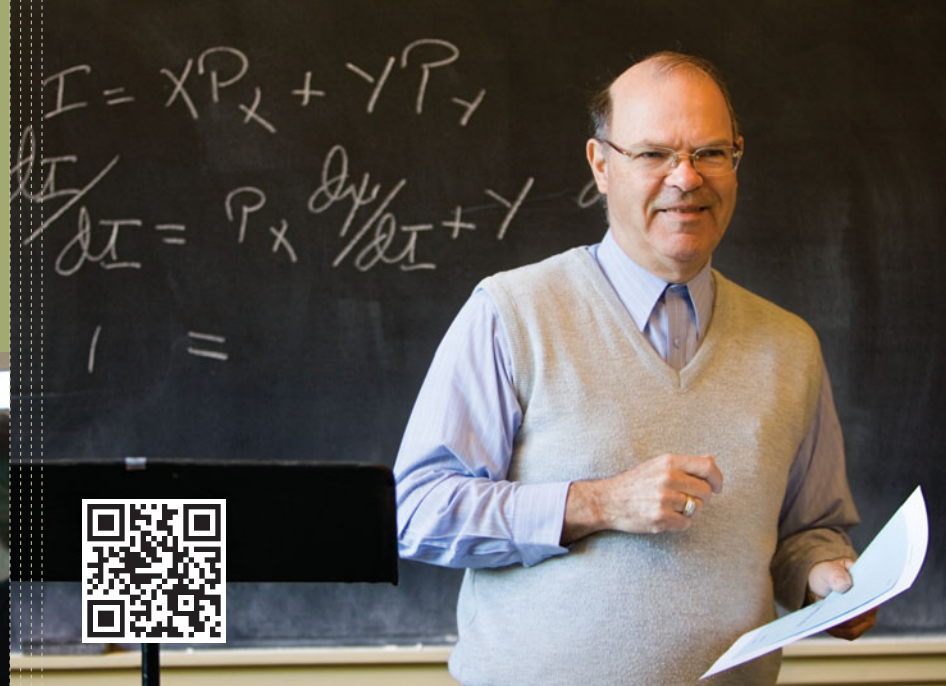

A Small College of National Distinction

We could give you a long list of majors, thirty-one of them. That's what most liberal arts colleges do. But, what Bethany College really does is teach you to think. Every course you take takes your brain on a journey all its own. And that's nice. Because, when you leave, you'll have to come up with answers every single day, no matter what you do for a living. Thank us later.
